PASCHA ARCHPASTORAL LETTER

To the Very Reverend Protopresbyters, Very Reverend and Reverend Fathers, and Faithful (young and old) of our God-Protected Diocese:

CHRIST IS RISEN! INDEED, HE IS RISEN!

CHRISTOS VOSKRESE! VOISTINNU VOSKRESE!

CHRISTOS ANESTI! ALITHOS ANESTI!

On this great and glorious Feast of Pascha — the Resurrection of our Lord, God and Saviour Jesus Christ, our hearts are filled with tremendous joy, our souls are transformed and we bask in the Light of Truth. This year I want to share with you an excerpt from an inspiring, uplifting and brilliant homily of our Father among the Saints, Gregory of Nyssa.

“The reign of life has begun, the tyranny of death is ended. A new birth has taken place, a new life has come, a new order of existence has appeared, our very nature has been transformed! This birth is not brought about by human generation, by the will of man, or by the desire of the flesh, but by God.

If you wonder how, I will explain in clear language. Faith is the womb that conceives this new life, baptism the rebirth by which it is brought forth into the light of day. The Church is its nurse; her teachings are its milk, the bread from heaven is its food. It is brought to maturity by the practice of virtue; it is wedded to wisdom; it gives birth to hope. Its home is the kingdom; its rich inheritance the joys of Paradise; its end, not death, but the blessed and everlasting life prepared for those who are worthy.

This is the day the Lord has made — a day far different from those made when the world was first created and which are measured by the passage of time. This is the beginning of a new creation. On this day, as the prophet says, God made a new heaven and a new earth. What is this new heaven? you may ask. It is the firmament of our faith in Christ. What is this new earth? A good heart, a heart like the earth, which drinks up the rain that falls on it and yields a rich harvest.

ECUMENICAL PATRIARCHATE OF CONSTANTINOPLE

In this new creation, purity of life is the sun, the virtues are the stars, transparent goodness is in the air, and the depths of the riches of wisdom and knowledge, the sea. Sound doctrine, the divine teachings are the grass and plants that feed God's flock, the people whom He shepherds; the keeping of the commandments is the fruit borne by the trees.

On this day is created the true man, the man made in the image and likeness of God. For this day that the Lord has made is the beginning of this new world. Of this day the prophet says that it is not like other days, nor is this night like other nights. But still we have not spoken of the greatest gift it has brought us. This day destroyed the pangs of death and brought forth birth of the firstborn of the dead.

I ascend to my Father and to Your Father, to my God and to your God. O what wonderful news! He who for our sake became like us in order to make us His brothers, now presents to His true Father His own humanity in order to draw all His kindred up after Him.”

PERSONAL GREETINGS

May all the Clergy and Laity, Friends and Supporters of the American Carpatho-Russian Orthodox Diocese of North America experience the love, joy and excitement of the early followers of Christ when they first saw Him following His Resurrection. Christ is Risen!

Greetings from Johnstown with much love,

+Metropolitan Gregory

ECUMENICAL PATRIARCHATE OF CONSTANTINOPLE

THE RESURRECTION HOMILY

As composed by Archbishop John Chrysostom, Patriarch of Constantinople in the 4th & 5th Centuries, & read worldwide even to this day at the celebration of the Resurrection.

Let all pious men and all lovers of feast; let the wise servants blissfully those who have borne the burden of who have toiled since the first hour, reward; let any who came after the feast, and those who may have come of being late, for the Lord is gracious first. He gives rest to him who comes who has toiled since the first: yes, He first; He rewards the one and is deed and praises the effort. Come all:

God rejoice in the splendor of this enter into the joy of their Lord; let Lent now receive their pay, and those let them now receive their due third hour be grateful to join in the after the sixth, let them not be afraid and He receives the last even as the in the eleventh hour as well as to him has pity on the last and He serves the generous to the other; He repays the enter into the joy of your Lord. You the first and you the last, receive alike your reward; you rich and you poor, dance together; you sober and you weakling, celebrate the day; you who have kept the fast and you who have not, rejoice today. The table is richly laden: enjoy its royal banquet. The calf is a fatted one: let no one go away hungry. All of you enjoy the banquet of faith; all of you receive the riches of His goodness. Let no one grieve over his poverty, for the universal kingdom has been revealed; let no one fear death, for the death of our Saviour has set us free: He has destroyed it by enduring it, He has despoiled Hades by going down into its kingdom, He has angered it by allowing it to taste of His flesh. When Isaiah foresaw all of this, he cried out: "O Hades, you have been angered by encountering Him in the nether world." Hades is angered because it has been destroyed, it is angered because it has been reduced to naught, it is angered because it is now captive. It seized a body, and lo! It discovered God; it seized earth, and behold! It encountered heaven; it seized the visible, and was overcome by the invisible.

O death, where is your sting?
O Hades, where is your victory?
Christ is risen and you are abolished;
Christ is risen and the demons are cast down;
Christ is risen and the angels rejoice;
Christ is risen and life is freed;
Christ is risen and the tomb is emptied of the dead:

For Christ, being risen from the dead, has become the Leader and Reviver of those who had fallen asleep. To Him be glory and power unto ages of ages. Amen.

APRIL 16th, 2023: GREAT & HOLY PASCHA!

Epistle: Acts 1:1-8 Gospel: John 1:1-17 Troparia: p 49-51

TODAY: SUNDAY, APRIL 16th

PASCHA is the Feast of feasts, the Joy of joys, the Celebration of celebrations. Pascha, or Passover (in Hebrew, Pesach), is the culmination of everything God has been preparing us for throughout the scriptures. In Egypt, Death passed over those marked with the blood of the lamb, freeing those who were captive there and bringing them to Himself. Now the Lamb of God, Jesus Christ, sheds His Blood for the forgiveness of sins and for live everlasting. In His life-giving Death, He descended into Hades and broke the bonds of those held captive, rendering Hell itself helpless. Through Christ's rising on the Third Day and taking up His Own life, Death now passes over to become the path to eternal life. Now all who live in Christ, who bind ourselves to Him and die to the world, experience the joys of paradise even now. Through even our own death, we become bound to God Himself and eternal life. In that spirit, we say with all joy: "Christ is Risen!" And we affirm and celebrate "Indeed He is Risen!"
