CHRISTMAS ARCHPASTORAL MESSAGE

December 25, 2023 / January 7, 2024

Protocol No. 10/2023

CHRIST IS BORN! GLORIFY HIM!

Dear Beloved Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today I greet you with great joy and love in the Name of our Lord, God and Saviour Jesus Christ. Let us give thanks to Almighty God, by whose grace we have been given this opportunity to celebrate the Birth of His Son.

As we look around ourselves, we find mistrust, suffering, hatred, homelessness, drug overdoses, crime, and senseless killings and the absence of peace and love in our homes, neighborhoods, cities, country and in fact the whole world. This reality in our lives makes us to want to cry out for God's help, assistance and intervention.

My beloved ones, despite all the suffering, sorrow and injustice in our world, today we rejoice because hope comes to us once again. This is why at this blessed time of the year we look forward to the arrival of the new born King.

Therefore, let us celebrate the miracle of His Birth. Let kindness come with every gift. Let compassion, forgiveness and love come with every greeting. Let our hearts be filled with prayer, charity, and reconciliation for one another.

May all of us, Priests, Panis, Deacons, Sub-Deacons, Readers, Acolytes, Archons, Parish Officers, Teachers, Parishioners (young and old), Friends and Supporters of our God-protected Diocese experience the joy and wonders of the Shepherds and the awe and respect of the Three Wise Men at the arrival of the Messiah, our new born King. Christ is Born!

Greetings from Johnstown with much love,

+Metropolitan Gregory

+Metropolitan Gregory of Nyssa

Troparia: p 115-117 (Sunday After), p 117-119 (Feast & St. Basil)

THE FEAST OF THE CIRCUMCISION OF OUR LORD is a celebration of our Lord and Savior's entrance under the Law of Israel, the same Law that He gave from Mt. Sinai; the Law-Giver placed Himself under the Law, being that same Law to Whom we bind ourselves and grow in the life-giving grace of God. It was on this day that He was circumcised as a sign, but also received His Name and laid in the arms of Righteous Simeon, who spoke those words we hymn every Vespers: "Now let your servant depart in peace, O Master, according to Your Word, for my eyes have seen Your salvation, which You have prepared before the face of all people. A light of revelation for the gentiles, and the glory of Your people, Israel." Simeon would go on to warn the Mother of God that a sword would pierce her heart also, foreshadowing our Lord's Passion & Crucifixion, and the Prophetess Anna who worshipped day and night at the Temple began to tell all about the Child and the redemption He would bring.*

THE BAPTISM OF THE CHILD OF GOD ANASTASIA MARIE FONTANEZ will take place at 9:30 AM before Divine Liturgy. All are encouraged to come early to celebrate with Anastasia's family and to offer prayers for Anastasia Marie on the day she enters into the Body of Christ, God's Holy Church.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 19th - Divine Liturgy @ 10 AM, the Feast of the Theophany of our Lord!

SATURDAY, JANUARY 20th - Home Blessings Begin! (No Services)

SUNDAY, JANUARY 21st: SUNDAY AFTER THEOPHANY

Epistle: Ephesians 4:7-13 Gospel: Matthew 4:12-17 Troparia: p 48 (Tone 8), p 123-24 (Sunday After)

THE FEAST OF THE THEOPHANY OF OUR LORD is the great and wonderful moment where Jesus of Nazareth came under the hands of the Holy Prophet, Forerunner, and Baptist John in Baptism. Baptism as we know it now is entrance into the Body of Christ but at that time, it was an act of repentance in asking God to wash away our iniquity. Now, the One through Whom all sin is cleansed passes through the cleansing waters of repentance, not needing it Himself but vesting Himself in ALL creation by it as He takes on sin & death itself. In that moment, the waters of the Jordan River turn back just as death itself will turn back. This celebration of the Theophany of our Lord is even older than the celebration of our Lord's Nativity itself, which speaks to the great significance of this moment in the life of the Church and the salvation of Her people.*

THE BAPTISM OF THE CHILD OF GOD LUCA MAXIME GRADASSI will take place at 9:30 AM before Divine Liturgy. All are encouraged to come early to celebrate with Luca's family and to offer prayers for Luca on the day he enters into the Body of Christ, God's Holy Church.

THE BOOK OF GENEALOGY

On Matthew 1:1-25, the Gospel Reading from the Sunday Before Nativity
By Bishop Mitrophan (Znosko-Borovsky)

From the mouth of the apostle and evangelist Matthew, we have heard the “Genealogy of Jesus Christ.” This seemingly dry Gospel reading expresses the idea of the kinship between God and man. According to the teaching of the Holy Scriptures, kinship with God is an indispensable characteristic of man, who is inseparably both “spirit” and “flesh.” This position is primary to man’s being, and it ceased to exist through the fault of man himself, the first Adam. Man himself was unable to return to this primary norm of life, and Christ comes to restore what has been broken. The current Gospel says that God the Creator, through His Son, has brought us closer to Himself. Today’s Gospel says that God returns to man the dignity he has lost.

Is it not for this reason that the Church now calls us to meet the approaching feast of Theophany and the Nativity of Christ in penitential joy? Think, dear ones, is this not joy? The Creator Himself, when He took on our flesh, was not ashamed to call people like us His kinsmen, His brothers! He is not ashamed to call us His brothers, says St. Paul. Tell me, dear ones —many people are talking about the dignity of man today, but in the entire history of mankind, when and by whom was man so exalted as Christianity exalts him?

The feast of the Nativity of Christ is approaching. Remember, dear ones, about the Creator of the feast. Think about the fact that He came to you to adopt you to God the Father, so that you may become children of God, brothers of Christ. Prepare your hearts for the celebration with repentance, purity, gifts of love and mercy, so that the heart of each of you becomes a cradle in which our Savior Christ may lay down.

Are we all children of God, can we all call ourselves brothers of Christ? The apostolic reading that we heard today, listing the righteous ones of the Old Testament, the ancestors in the flesh of Jesus Christ, shows us by their examples how we must believe and live to be worthy to be called children of God. Here is Adam, who gives us an example of contrition and repentance. We sin all our lives, but do we often lament our sins? Enoch gives us an example of Godly thinking. He forgot all worldly things, being constantly with God. The destinies of the world were revealed to him until the second coming of Jesus Christ. Living in the midst of a corrupt world, Noah was subjected to ridicule and mockery, but he never wavered in his devotion to God. Eber is the only one of all the people who did not participate in the proud challenge to God, which the maddened people made in their pride: let us build a tower to heaven (they say, we will reach God), and without His participation, we will create glory for ourselves. Because of his faithfulness to God and his humble devotion to Him, Eber, together with his offspring, was favored with the mercies of God. And there is Abraham, for whom the will of God was everything, and Isaac, for whom obedience to his parents was the basis of his life. In Jacob we are given an example of patience and meekness; in Joseph, an example of gentleness and chastity; in Job the long suffering, an example of patience in sorrow and suffering: Blessed be the name of the Lord . . . God gave and God took away exclaimed Job, having lost both his wealth and his children.

The same paths along which the above-mentioned men of the Old Testament traveled, the Provider is also leading you and me—the New Israel. And here is Moses, prophet and leader, lawgiver and miracle worker. Living in luxury and honor in the Pharaoh’s palace, out of love for his people, Moses abandons everything, preferring to suffer with the people: Lord, it is better to destroy me than my people... In faith, theology, in fidelity to Christ, amidst ridicule and persecution, in humility, in devotion to His will and chastity, in sacrificial love for his God-bearing people’s sufferings, in other words. In imitation of the Old Testament righteous relatives in the flesh of the Messiah of Christ, may the Savior of the world help us all to be established, for the glorification of the One lying in a manger, for Whom we are preparing. Amen.
